User Guide

This section provides information how to work with Scroll Translations.

You can either translate your pages manually or create a Translation-ZIP which must be imported to your Confluence system after it is translated completely.